3.3 These Terms and Conditions apply to the exclusion of any terms and conditions submitted, proposed or stipulated by you. These Terms and Conditions apply to our supply of any Service.

3.4 Except as expressly provided herein, the Contract (together with any documents referred to in it) shall operate to the entire exclusion of any other agreement, understanding or arrangement of any kind between you and us preceding the date of the Contract and in any way relating to the subject matter of the Contract and to the exclusion of any representations not expressly stated herein except for any fraudulent misrepresentations or any misrepresentation as to a fundamental matter. Neither you nor we have entered into the Contract based on any representation that is not expressly incorporated into the Contract.

3.5 The Contract (together with any documents referred to in it) constitutes the whole agreement and understanding of you and us as to the subject matter of the Contract and there are no provisions, terms, conditions or obligations, whether oral or written, express or implied, other than those contained or referred to herein.

4. FORMATION OF THE CONTRACT

4.1 Before placing an Order, you need to be registered with us. Your registration with us does not impose any legal obligation for you to obtain, or us to provide, the Service until the Contract is formed.

4.2 A Contract shall be legally formed and the Parties shall be legally bound when we dispatch our Order Acceptance to you following your Order, confirming the terms on which the Parties have agreed to proceed.

4.3 If you are placing your Order through the Website, our Website pages will guide you through the steps you need to take to place the Order. Our order process allows you to check and amend any errors before submitting your Order to us. Please take the time to read and check your order at each page of the order process.

4.4 It is your responsibility to ensure that all information supplied to us or our Website by you or your Manager or your Users is complete and accurate.

4.5 Except as expressly provided otherwise in a Contract, no change to any Contract shall be binding unless agreed in writing by each of the Parties and in any format which may be described as being required in the Order Acceptance or which the Parties otherwise agree in writing.

4.6 In respect of any future Contracts, we may amend these Terms and Conditions before you place your Order. Please look at Clause 1.3 in these Terms and Conditions to see when they were last updated. Every time you place an Order with us, the Terms and Conditions in force at the time of your Order will apply to that Contract between you and us, so it is your responsibility to check the latest Terms and Conditions before placing your Order.

4.7 If you provide us with an Order, purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or other document for the Service, such document shall be purely for your administrative purposes only and shall not form part of a Contract unless it is referred to in the Order Acceptance and then only to the extent referred to.

5.4 We may supply the Service with updates, modifications or improvements incorporated into them and we reserve the right to temporarily suspend the Service if in our reasonable opinion it becomes necessary to amend the Service to include specific updates, modifications or improvements.

5.5 To enable us to provide the Service to your Users, you shall (or shall procure that your Users or Manager shall) supply us with the following (to the extent applicable): name, address, email address, user name, password, telephone and fax numbers. You agree, and you shall procure that your Users and Manager agree, that we shall use that information, together with any further information resulting from your and your Manager's and Users' use of the Service (including dates of Course taken or to be taken and certificate and pass or fail details) in order for us to provide the Service.

5.6 You shall, and you shall ensure that your Users and your Manager shall, use their own details and not impersonate another person or organisation or adopt a false identity.

We may carry out planned or emergency maintenance from time to time, and there may be downtime in access for reasons beyond our reasonable control.

5.11 We do not warrant that the content within the Course will remain up-to-date beyond the date on which we make it available to your User. You are responsible for any equipment, hardware, services or software that you are required to obtain from someone other than us. Except for any matter upon which we specifically agree in writing with you to advise or do, we shall not be responsible or have any Liability for advising on, or failing to advise on, or doing, or failing to do, anything else (including on any laws, rules, regulations, bye-laws or codes of practice).

5.13 We do not warrant that the Website will be compatible with all hardware and software which you may use. Although we may put in place security measures for your protection, we shall not have Liability for damage to, or viruses or other code that may affect, any computer equipment, software, data or other property as a result of your access to or use of the Website or your obtaining any material from, or as a result of using, the Website. We shall also not have any Liability for the actions of third parties in breaching any security measures.

5.14 The Service and use of the Website do not include the provision of a computer or other necessary equipment to access the Website. To use the Service and Website, you will require Internet connectivity and appropriate telecommunication links. We shall not have any Liability for any telephone or other costs that you may incur.

5.15 We shall use our reasonable endeavours to perform our obligations within any timescales set out in the Contract. Records

5.16 We shall retain the Records for up to six years after the Course has been taken by the relevant User, unless and until:

5.16.1 you or the relevant User requests that any or all such Records about a User be sent to you or deleted, in which case we shall promptly comply with that request, subject to any legal requirements to preserve the information and to you paying our reasonable Fees for carrying out the request; or

5.16.2 you request the deletion of a User (or Manager) or you request that a User is removed from a Course, in which case the Records generated by such deleted User (or Manager) will be deleted, subject to any legal requirements to preserve the information and to you paying our reasonable Fees for carrying out your request.

5.17 Although we shall take back-ups of the Records in accordance with our standard practice, you shall be responsible for taking and maintaining your own copies of the Records, in case of loss, damage, theft, corruption, deletion or misuse of Records. User Content

5.18 All comments, suggestions, ideas, notes, drawings, concepts or other information disclosed or offered to us by you or in response to solicitations by us regarding the Service or the Website (each being "Ideas") shall be deemed to be our property and shall remain our property. You understand and acknowledge that we have both internal resources and other external resources which may have developed or may in the future develop ideas identical to or similar to Ideas and that we are only willing to consider Ideas on these terms. In any event, any Ideas are not submitted in confidence and we assume no obligation, express or implied by considering it. Without limitation, we shall exclusively own all now known or hereafter existing rights to the Ideas of every kind and nature throughout the world and shall be entitled to unrestricted use of the Ideas for any purpose whatsoever, whether commercial or otherwise, without compensation to the provider of the Ideas. Other rules about use of the Service and the Website

5.19 If the Website and the Service is accessed by you, your Users or your Manager from outside the United Kingdom, this is entirely at your risk. We provide no warranty or representation that the Website or Service (or any products or services referred to in the Website or in or pursuant to the Service) are available or otherwise suitable for use outside of the United Kingdom. If you, your Users or your Manager choose to access or use or obtain the Website or Service from or in locations outside the United Kingdom, you do so on your own initiative and are responsible for:

5.19.1 ensuring that what you are doing in that country is legal; and

5.19.2 the consequences and compliance by you with all applicable laws, regulations, byelaws, codes of practice, licences, registrations, permits and authorisations (including any laws that relate to businesses providing services).

6. FEES AND PAYMENT

6.1 You shall pay the Fees in full when due; and the Fees shall be deemed received only when received by us in full cleared funds.

6.2 When you place an Order:

6.2.1 you shall pay the Licence Fee in full at the time of ordering by supplying us with your payment card details from a payment card company acceptable to us, which we require in order to process your Order (or you shall pay by such other payment method as we may expressly agree with you); and

6.2.2 you undertake that all details you provide to us for the purpose of purchasing the Service will be correct, that the payment card or account which you use is your own and that there are sufficient funds or credit facilities to cover the cost of the Service. We reserve the right to obtain validation of your payment card details before providing you with the Service.

6.3 We may issue an invoice to you for the Fee.

6.4 Except where we require payment in advance of using the Service (in which case our provision of the Service is conditional on you having paid in full), you shall pay us for all sums due under an invoice within seven days after the date of such invoice.

6.5 Our provision of access to the Service is conditional on us first receiving the Licence Fee and any other sums due under the Contract prior to the Commencement Date in cleared funds in full from you.

6.6 This Clause 6.6 only applies if you are a consumer. If you are a consumer, you have a right to cancel the Contract by letting us know within 14 days after the Contract is formed (being when we despatch our Order Acceptance to you). The easiest way to do this is by email at dave@callsafe-services.co.uk or contacting us on 01889 577701 or you can write to us at Yardley House, 11 Horsefair, Rugeley, Staffordshire, WS15 2EJ. If you exercise that right, we will fully reimburse you for the Fee you paid in advance for the Service under the Contract. However, you lose that right to cancel and to be reimbursed if you expressly decide to start using the Service before expiry of that 14 day period. Therefore, only start using the Service before expiry of the 14 day cancellation period if you are happy to lose that cancellation right.

6.7 If you are overdue with any payment due under a Contract (including the Fees) then, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to us:

6.7.1 we may charge you interest on the overdue amount at the rate specified by virtue of the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998, which interest shall be payable by you forthwith on demand, from the due date up to the date of actual payment, after as well as before judgment. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis and be compounded quarterly; and

6.7.2 we reserve the right to refuse access to the Service or suspend any Service under any Contract until all payments are up-to-date.

6.8 Unless stated otherwise by us, all sums payable by you under a Contract are exclusive of any Value Added Tax, if applicable, which shall be added thereto and which shall be due and payable by you to us at the same time as the relevant sum is due or payable.

6.9 All Fees shall be payable by you by any payment method reasonably stipulated by us.

6.10 All Fees shall be payable in the currency of England, from time to time.

6.11 Time for payment shall be of the essence.

7. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

7.1 All Intellectual Property Rights in the Website and Service, information and content and material on or accessible from the Website or pursuant to the Service (including the Courses and Licensed Materials), any data collected by us and database operated by us and all the Website design, text and graphics, and their selection and arrangement, and all software compilations, underlying source code and software (including applets and scripts) and Website methodologies and Service content shall remain our property (or that of our licensors). You shall not, and shall not attempt to, obtain any title to any such Intellectual Property Rights. All rights not expressly granted by us are reserved.

You and any lawful permitted User may, however, retrieve and display the content of the Website on a computer screen or print one copy of such content for your or their own personal, non-commercial use, provided you and they keep intact all and any copyright and proprietary notices in any electronic or hard copy of the material or the Website or Service. You shall not, and you shall procure that all Users shall not, otherwise reproduce, adapt, modify, copy, distribute, publish, rent, lease, loan, translate, create derivative works or use for commercial purposes any of the materials or content on the Website or Service without our express prior written permission.

7.3 No part of the Website or the material described in Clause 7.1 may be reproduced or stored in any other website or included in any public or private electronic retrieval system or service without our prior written permission or as provided by law.

7.4 If you, having been properly authorised, quote from the Website, you must do so fairly and give due accreditation to the author and us and reference to the Website.

7.5 Except to the extent that we expressly permit, you shall not, and you shall procure that your Users shall not, modify any material described in Clause 7.1.

8.1 Each of you and we shall keep and procure to be kept secret and confidential the Confidential Information of the other Party (whether disclosed or obtained before, on or after the date of a Contract) and shall not use nor disclose the same save:

8.1.1 for the purposes of the proper performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under a Contract; or

8.1.2 as otherwise permitted by a Contract; or

8.1.3 with the prior written consent of the other Party.

8.2 Where either Party discloses Confidential Information of the other Party to its employee, consultant, subcontractor, supplier, customer, agent, professional adviser or insurer, it shall do so on a need-to-know basis and subject to obligations equivalent to those set out in this Clause 8. Each Party shall use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that any such employee, consultant, subcontractor, supplier, customer, agent, professional adviser or insurer complies with such obligations.

8.3 Each Party shall at all times:

8.3.1 adopt, retain and keep updated adequate procedures and physical security measures which protect the Confidential Information of the other Party from inadvertent disclosure or release to unauthorised persons; and

8.3.2 hold the Confidential Information of the other Party in strict confidence and in any event with no less standard of confidentiality than that which it applies to its own confidential information.

8.4 The obligations of confidentiality in this Clause 8 shall not extend to any matter which the Party can show:

8.4.1 is in, or has become part of, the public domain other than as a result of a breach of the confidentiality obligations of the Contract; or

8.4.2 was in its written records prior to receipt; or

8.4.3 was independently developed by it; or

8.4.4 was independently disclosed to it by a third party entitled to disclose the same.

8.5 If either Party is required to disclose the Confidential Information of the other Party under any applicable law, or by order of a court or governmental body or authority of competent jurisdiction, then the Party so required may disclose the Confidential Information to the extent required but shall, prior to any disclosure where practicable, give the other Party as much notice thereof as practicable and notify and consult with the other Party and, at the other Party's request and cost, fully co-operate with and assist that other Party in opposing any such disclosure.

8.6 Neither Party shall make any announcement of any kind in respect of the subject matter of a Contract except with the prior written consent of the other Party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) or as is required by law.

8.7 Subject to Clause 8.6, we may identify you as a customer and the type of services provided by us to you, provided that in doing so we shall not (without your prior written consent) reveal any of your Confidential Information.

9.2 Users have a maximum of one year to take the Course. The Contract shall expire on the earlier of the first anniversary of the Commencement Date or the date on which the last User, of the agreed number of Users permitted to use the Service pursuant to the Licence, successfully complete the Course or last of the Courses included in the Service as set out in the Order Acceptance.

9.3 We shall be entitled immediately or at any time (in whole or in part), without Liability, to suspend your use of the Service and/or Website (in whole or in part) if:

9.3.1 you commit any material breach of a Contract; or

9.3.2 we suspect, on reasonable grounds, that you have, might or will commit a material breach of a Contract.

9.4 If we suspend your use of or participation in the Service and/or Website (in whole or in part) under Clause 9.3:

9.4.1 you shall not attempt to use or access the Service and/or the Website directly or indirectly under any other name or user; and

9.4.2 any Fees paid by you or invoiced to you shall in any event be payable and non-refundable.

9.5 If we suspend your use of or participation in the Service or Website (in whole or in part), we may refuse to restore the Service or Website until we receive an assurance from you, in a form we reasonably deem acceptable, that there will be no further breach of the provisions of a Contract.

9.6 Either Party may terminate the Contract immediately by notice to the other Party if:

9.6.1 the other Party is in material breach of any of its obligations under the Contract or any other agreement between the Parties which is incapable of remedy; or

9.6.2 the other Party fails to remedy, where capable of remedy, any material breach of any of its obligations under the Contract or any other agreement between the Parties after having been required in writing to remedy such breach within a period of no less than 30 days; or

9.6.3 the other Party is in persistent breach of any of its obligations under the Contract or any other agreement between the Parties; or

9.6.4 the other Party gives notice to any of its creditors that it has suspended or is about to suspend payment or if it shall be unable to pay its debts within the meaning of Section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986, or an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding-up of the other Party or an administration order is made or an administrator is appointed to manage the affairs, business and property of the other Party or a receiver and/or manager or administrative receiver is appointed in respect of all or any of the other Party's assets or undertaking or circumstances arise which entitle the court or a creditor to appoint a receiver and/or manager or administrative receiver or administrator or which entitle the court to make a winding-up or bankruptcy order or the other Party takes or suffers any similar or analogous action in consequence of debt in any jurisdiction.

9.7 For the purposes of Clause 9.6, a breach shall be considered capable of remedy if the Party in breach can comply with the provision in question in all respects other than as to time to the reasonable satisfaction of the other Party.

9.8 Without prejudice to the status of any breach of any other provision of a Contract, the Parties agree that any breach of the other Party's Intellectual Property Rights (including use of the Service other than strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Contract) or Confidential Information shall be considered a material breach which is not capable of remedy.

9.9 Termination of a Contract shall be without prejudice to any accrued rights or remedies of either Party.

9.10 Termination of a Contract will not affect the coming into force or continuance in force of any provision which is expressly or by implication intended to come into or continue in force on or after such termination.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

10.1 This Clause 10 prevails over all other Clauses and sets forth our entire Liability, and your sole and exclusive remedies, in respect of:

10.6.12 loss of, damage to or corruption of data; or

10.6.13 any indirect or consequential loss; and such Liability is excluded whether it is foreseeable, known, foreseen or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, Clauses 10.6.1 to 10.6.12 apply whether such losses are direct, indirect, consequential or otherwise.

10.7 Save as provided in Clause 10.2, our total Liability shall in no circumstances exceed, in aggregate, a sum equal to the greater of: a) £10,000; or b) 110% of any aggregate amount paid or otherwise payable to us under the Contract.

10.8 The limitation of Liability under Clause 10.7 has effect in relation both to any Liability expressly provided for under the Contract and to any Liability arising by reason of the invalidity or unenforceability of any term of such Contract.

12. DATA PROTECTION

12.1 Please see our latest Privacy Policy which forms part of each Contract. The latest version of our Privacy Policy is as set out in the Appendix to these Terms and Conditions.

12.2 In performing a Contract, each Party shall:

12.2.1 comply with all applicable data protection legislation; and

12.2.2 procure that their employees, agents, consultants and contractors comply with all applicable data protection legislation.

12.3 The Parties agree and acknowledge that in respect of our obligations under the Contract as to any "personal data" within any Manager's or User's data, we are a "data processor" and you are the "data controller" (as those terms are defined in the Data Protection Act 1998). Accordingly, we shall act in accordance with your reasonable instructions as to processing such data, and in accordance with the seventh principle of that Act we shall take appropriate technical and organisational measures against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to such data.

12.4 Although we take security measures in accordance with good industry practice, we cannot guarantee the absolute security of any data, including as a result of the acts or omissions of third parties.

12.5 You must have the express consent of any third party (including any other Users or Manager whom you represent) in order for you to disclose or post details about that other third party to us or to the Website.

12.6 We may amend or remove data relating to any living individual if they ask us to do so.

13.1 If you are a consumer, you may contact us as described in Clauses 1.1 or 6.6.

13.2 If you are a business:

13.2.1 Any notice given by you to us, or by us to you, under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally, sent by pre-paid first class recorded delivery post or other next working day courier service or email.

13.2.2 A notice shall be deemed to have been received: if delivered personally, when actually delivered; if sent by pre-paid first class recorded delivery post or other next working day courier service, at 9.00 am on the third Working Day after despatch; or if sent by email, one Working Day after transmission (provided that the email is confirmed by sending through one of the other authorised methods). A "Working Day" is any day other than (a) a Saturday, (b) a Sunday, or (c) a day which is a bank holiday in England (as set out on www.gov.uk/bank-holidays for bank holidays in England).

14. OTHER IMPORTANT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

14.1 We may assign, transfer, novate or subcontract any of our rights, liabilities or obligations under the Contract either in whole or in part to any other person, firm or company.

14.2 You shall not (or purport to) assign, transfer, novate, charge or otherwise encumber, create any trust over or deal in any manner with the Contract or any of your rights, liabilities or obligations under the Contract without our prior written consent.

14.3 The Contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms and conditions.

14.4 Each Clause and part of the Clause of these Terms and Conditions operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining Clauses or parts of Clauses will remain in full force and effect.

14.5 If either Party fails to insist that the other Party performs any of its obligations under the Contract, or either Party does not enforce its rights against the other Party, or if there is a delay in doing so, that will not mean that either Party has waived its rights against the other Party and will not mean that the other Party does not have to comply with those obligations. If either Party does waive a default by the other Party, it will only do so in writing, and that will not mean that the waiving Party will automatically waive any later default by the other Party.

14.6 If you are a consumer, please note that these Terms and Conditions are governed by English law. This means the Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it will be governed by English law. You and we both agree to that the English courts will have jurisdiction. Unless you have any mandatory and non-excludable right to bring any court action in another place, you shall bring any legal action only in the English courts.

14.7 If you are a business, the Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. In respect of any disputes:

14.7.1 If you are domiciled in the European Union, the exclusive forum for settling any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the Contract shall be the English courts.

14.7.2 If you are not domiciled in the European Union, any dispute which may arise out of or in connection with the Contract shall be exclusively referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the LCIA Rules. Those Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this Clause. The number of arbitrators shall be one. The seat, or legal place, of arbitration shall be London, England. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.
